

2015 AGTA SPECTRUM WINNERS HONORED IN DIGITAL FLIP BOOK

Dallas, Texas, March 17, 2015- The American Gem Trade Association's 2015 Spectrum Award™ winners are being honored with a digital flip book commemorating their extraordinary work submitted to the world's most prestigious natural colored gemstone and cultured pearl competition. The rigorous competition, held in autumn of 2014, was highlighted by almost 500 artful entries submitted by both seasoned artists and emerging talent. Winners were then recognized at the glittering AGTA Spectrum Awards™ gala in Tucson, Arizona on February 7, 2015. Following this meaningful and memorable occasion, Jeff Bilgore, Chair of the AGTA Spectrum Awards™ committee, and his Board colleagues, directed the creation of a digital flip book, and AGTA marketing executed the piece which documents each winning entrant. This visual tribute is a valuable record of the event, and a flexible means by which these distinguished artists can further publicize their signature talents.
